4. Commencement of Employment

4.1 Your employment with the Village Hall started on xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

There is no previous employment that counts as continuous.

4.2 In accepting your employment it shall be deemed that you have accepted all the terms and conditions set out in these terms and conditions of employment.

4.3 These terms and conditions of employment annul any previous agreement whether verbal or in writing given to you at any time.

5. Collective agreements

There are no collective agreements relating to your employment.

6. Normal hours of work

You do not have any set number of hours in which to carry out your duties, so for the purposes of the Working Time Regulations 1998 ("Regulations"), the working time limit does not apply to you, there is no entitlement to daily or weekly rest breaks although compensatory rest breaks will be allowed whenever your duties include security.

7. Pay

Your pay is £_____ per hour/year. Your pay will be reviewed annually entirely at the Committee's discretion.

[This is payable weekly on Friday][This is payable monthly in arrears on the 24th of each month by bank transfer. Bank details should be given to the Treasurer on commencement].

8. Annual Holidays and Holiday Pay:

You are entitled to the following paid holidays:

8.1 (i) 8 statutory holidays which are New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, May Day, Spring Bank Holiday, Late Summer Bank Holiday, Christmas day and Boxing Day, unless on any such Bank Holiday you are required to carry out your duties in which case you will be given another day's holiday in lieu of the Bank Holiday worked.

(ii) 20 working days holiday in every calendar year, accumulating at the rate of 1.5 days per completed month's employment. This entitlement is subject to the following sub clauses of this clause and shall be taken at times to be agreed with [the Chair]. Such agreement is to be obtained before you have committed yourself to bookings or any other alternative positive arrangements.

8.2 The village hall's leave year runs from [1 January] to [31 December] and you should take your holidays during this period. You will not be permitted to carry over an unused holiday entitlement into a following holiday year except with the express consent of [the Chair]. You will not be entitled to payment for any unused holiday entitlement. No holidays may be taken in the first three months of employment.

8.3 You may not take as holiday more than 10 working days consecutively out of your entitlement without the prior written consent of [the Chair]

8.4 If you leave the village hall's employment with an outstanding holiday entitlement, you will, in addition to any other sums to which you may be entitled, be paid a sum representing salary for the number of days holiday entitlement outstanding. If you leave the village hall's employment having taken more than the accumulated holiday entitlement for the current holiday year then a sum equivalent to salary for the additional holiday taken will be deducted from any final payment to you and the balance will be paid to you. The village hall may require you to take any unused holiday entitlement during your notice period.

9. Absence for illness

9.1 Notification of absence from work owing to illness, or any other cause, must be made at the earliest opportunity on the first day of absence direct to [the Chair]. You are asked to complete a self-certification form for all absences due to illness. Forms are available from [the Chair], and should be returned to him or her. After an absence of 5 consecutive working days a Medical Certificate is required. You must supply further certificates as and when required by the Committee and a final certificate giving the date on which you will be fit to resume work will also be required.

9.2 For the purposes of the Statutory Sick Pay scheme the agreed 'qualifying days' are Monday to Friday.

9.3 There is no contractual right to payment in respect of periods of absence due to illness or incapacity, but such payments are at the village hall's discretion.
